Stay

Plan on spending at least a few evenings in the Hotel Belles-Rives, a 40-room luxury hotel on the sea wall in Juan-les-Pins, where famed author F. Scott Fitzgerald and his wife, Zelda, lived during 1925, when it was a private villa. The Art Deco hotel features the intimate Fitzgerald Bar with French doors that open to the shimmering sea, a private beach filled with chic sunseekers, and sweeping views of the Mediterranean from rooms with impressive terraces.
